A Man is Not a Plan

Feeling like you have no control over your life and your money?

Too busy with real life and worrying about today to be able to plan for the future?

Think that financial advice is too full of jargon and not for you?

“A Man is Not a Plan” shares how financial planning for women has changed and shows what you can do to take control of your finances today.

About the speaker

Eleanor Coleman is the Founder of The Financial Empowerment Group. She uses her expertise to help people define and achieve their dreams, take control of their finances and realise true financial freedom.

Drawing on her 14 years of experience working for international banks in Hong Kong, Eleanor delivers regular seminars and workshops including the popular series "A Man is Not a Plan".

She aims to help women and the LGBTQ+ community to understand and master their finances through planning and education
