HEAD OF THE TABLE

WITH ANNE O'RIORDAN

Group Director of Digital
Jardine Matheson Limited

Supported by Future Leaders Committee

Head of the Table is a prestigious forum where a select group of young professionals from the Chamber gather for an intimate dinner with prominent leaders from various fields in Hong Kong. Previous events have been graced by esteemed individuals such as Rupert Hogg of Cathay Pacific, Mark Greenberg of Jardine Matheson, Chris Harvey of Accenture, Jeremy Sheldon of JLL, Stuart Tait from HSBC Group, David Thomas from HSBC, and Dr. Anne Kerr from Mott MacDonald.

We are excited to announce that the upcoming Head of the Table event will be hosted by Anne O'Riordan, the Group Director of Digital at Jardine. Anne brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise in the digital landscape, and her leadership at Jardine has been instrumental in driving digital transformation within the organisation.

Head of the Table offers young professionals a unique opportunity to engage and interact with senior business leaders from companies and organisations beyond their own. It not only provides valuable insights and perspectives from accomplished individuals but also allows attendees to connect with like-minded emerging leaders, fostering a network of support and collaboration.

Don't miss the chance to be part of this exclusive gathering, where meaningful conversations, networking, and personal growth intersect. Join us for an unforgettable evening hosted by Anne O'Riordan, as we continue to nurture the next generation of leaders in Hong Kong.

Head of The Table

Anne O'Riordan is the Group Director of Digital for Jardine Matheson Limited. She is responsible for providing oversight of and further developing the Group's digital and innovation strategy and agenda.
