In Conversation with Andrew Seaton, Chief Executive at CBBC

Join the chamber for a thought-provoking and insightful conversation between the former Executive Director, Andrew Seaton and the current Executive Director of the British Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong, Paul McComb as they discuss the ever-changing landscape and dynamics between the UK, Hong Kong and China.

Andrew had been Chief Executive of the China Britain

Business Council (CBBC) since June 2021. CBBC is the UK's leading national business organisation promoting business, trade and investment between the UK and China. CBBC supports its members and clients with on the ground practical business advice in the UK and China, expert analysis and insight, and senior level access and advocacy.

Andrew was from 2015-2020 Executive Director of the British Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong.

Andrew was formerly a member of the UK Diplomatic Service spending much of his career working on UK policy towards, and relations with, China and Hong Kong, including postings to the Embassy in Beijing, as Head of the China Department in the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, and as British Consul General to Hong Kong and Macao.

Andrew was educated at the University of Leeds (BA Chinese Studies, 1st Class Hons) and Beijing University (UK/China Exchange scholar).

This event is hosted by Jeremy Sheldon.
