Navigating Next - Practical Future Proofing Strategies

How can businesses survive and thrive in a fast changing world and uncertain future? The operating landscape is being shaped by powerful and accelerating forces - ranging from intensifying competition, powerful technologies, and innovative business ideas through to socio-demographic shifts, geopolitical tensions, new economic thinking, and environmental challenges. Navigating this complexity requires fresh insights, powerful ideas, and the capacity to turn inspiration into action at speed.

Join this webinar to hear from global futurist and corporate advisor, Rohit Talwar, who will share how we can future proof our organisations by:

- leading from the future - developing the capacity to anticipate change and take an outside in perspective;
- responding smart - identifying and acting on the powerful forces of change driving market shifts and disruptions;
- managing risk - spotting and preparing for potentially existential threats;
- winning big - tapping into opportunities for exponential growth;
- mastering technology - leveraging breakthrough technologies ranging from AI and blockchain through to 5G and cloud;

- planning with foresight - use foresight to ensure the resilience and robustness of key business plans and decisions; and
- embedding tomorrow - building a forward-looking culture.

About the speaker

Rohit Talwar a global futurist, award-winning keynote speaker, author, and the CEO of Fast Future. He helps clients navigate disruption, understand the emerging landscape, and shape the future. Rohit has a passion around futureproofing ourselves, and how to advance individual lives, society, and business by harnessing new ideas, innovation, and disruptive developments such as 'corporation zero' thinking, AI, and human enhancement. He is currently helping clients evolve their digital strategies towards a corporation zero approach and understand and develop strategies for crypto, blockchains, metaverses, and AI.

Rohit has delivered 2,000+ keynote speeches and executive workshops in 70+ countries on six continents. He is the co-author and lead editor of eight books on the future. My latest are Aftershocks and Opportunities—Scenarios for a Post-Pandemic Future, and Aftershocks and Opportunities 2: Navigating the Next Horizon.

Rohit appears regularly in the media, including the BBC, Sky TV, and State TV in China, India, South Korea, Singapore, and the UAE. He has been covered 5,000+ times globally in national newspapers including the Financial Times, Guardian, Metro, Daily Mail, Daily Mirror, Times, Times of India, and Washington Post.

Rohit is the co-author of Designing Your Future; The Future of Business; Beyond Genuine Stupidity—Ensuring AI Serves Humanity; The Future Reinvented—Reimagining Life, Society, and Business; A Very Human Future—Enriching Humanity in a Digitized World; The Opportunity at the Edge—Change, Challenge, and Transformation on the Path to 2025, and Aftershocks and Opportunities—Scenarios for a Post-Pandemic Future. His latest book is Aftershocks and Opportunities 2: Navigating the Next Horizon.
