UK Property Market Update

Hear from the leading UK property developer, Select Property, on the latest market insights and projects. In a market driven by a shortage of supply and a growing population, UK property has historically been a solid investment, combining low risk and strong returns.

Annabelle Yiu and Katie Tsang, are UK property experts based in Hong Kong, cordially invite you to this breakfast meeting to discuss the best markets to consider when investing in UK property.

The following topics will be covered at the event:

- Overview of Select Property
- Latest trends and news of the UK property market
- Why should investors consider investing in the UK
- How to collaborate with Select Property as a business partner
